Classical poets like Purandara Dasa and Kanakadasa used devotional poetry that subtly incorporated themes of love and devotion, often intertwined with spiritual longing. Stories that depicted desire explicitly were rare and usually veiled in symbolism or allegory, respecting social and religious boundaries.

Emergence of Modern Kama Narratives The advent of modern Kannada literature in the 20th century, especially post-independence, opened doors to more honest and diverse portrayals of human relationships. Writers like U. R. Ananthamurthy and K. S. Narasimha Swamy started exploring themes of individual desire, societal constraints, and the complexities of love beyond conventional morality.
